Rosetta Life

Brain ODYSSEYS
Recovery through performance arts

LEARN FROM US

A new dance theatre work exploring the lessons and laughter of life after brain injury

https://rosettalife.org/

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Learn From Us encourages us to keep searching until we find something we connect with that offers us a way of engaging in the world with purpose.

What ignites your spark or fires your imagination?

(Use each of the boxes to draw or write in)

James finds a way to tell his story of recovery through comedy and laughter

Has laughter helped you in your life, do you have a favourite joke or anecdote you would like to share?

In the show, there is a key moment when ‘our hero’ Jen, is offered the jungle as a resource to reconnect with her physical senses after brain injury

How do you connect with nature, how does this make you feel?